

LRID's Board has scheduled two retreat days to conduct organization business. Members are invited to attend. The main topics that will be discussed at the retreats will be related to an organizational analysis, planning the 2023 fall conference, complete SWOT analysis and plan for future initiatives, such as training, retention, succession planning, and membership involvement. . Members feedback and involvement is important to LRID's continuing success. Please fill out the membership engagement form to assist in figuring out members needs by clicking this link:
